Armed Fugitives Caught After Nine-Hour Chase

By Jon Thompson

Darry Rabideau, 23, and a 16-year-old male, both from the Pontiac area, were arrested late Monday night after a nine-hour manhunt east of Grayling.

The juvenile was armed with a .22 caliber revolver when arrested and Tuesday afternoon police were still searching for another weapon reportedly used by Rabideau.

Rabideau was arraigned in 83rd District Court Tuesday on charges of assault with intent to commit murder, armed robbery while possessing a firearm, and breaking and entering an occupied building while possessing a firearm.

The 16-year-old was petitioned to juvenile court but the county's prosecuting attorney and sheriff dept. will seek to have his juvenile status waived to try him in court as an adult.

The chase began about 1 p.m. Monday after Raymond

Huck, 49, of Detroit, arrived at his A-frame summer residence near the intersection of North Down River Rd. and Whirlpool Rd. and found one of the suspects inside. The suspect ran upstairs and jumped off the balcony while Huck went inside to call the sheriff dept. Huck was giving information to the police dispatcher when the suspect allegedly came back to the house with a gun. Huck ran into the woods and was shot in the leg. Huck said the suspects beat him and took his car keys.

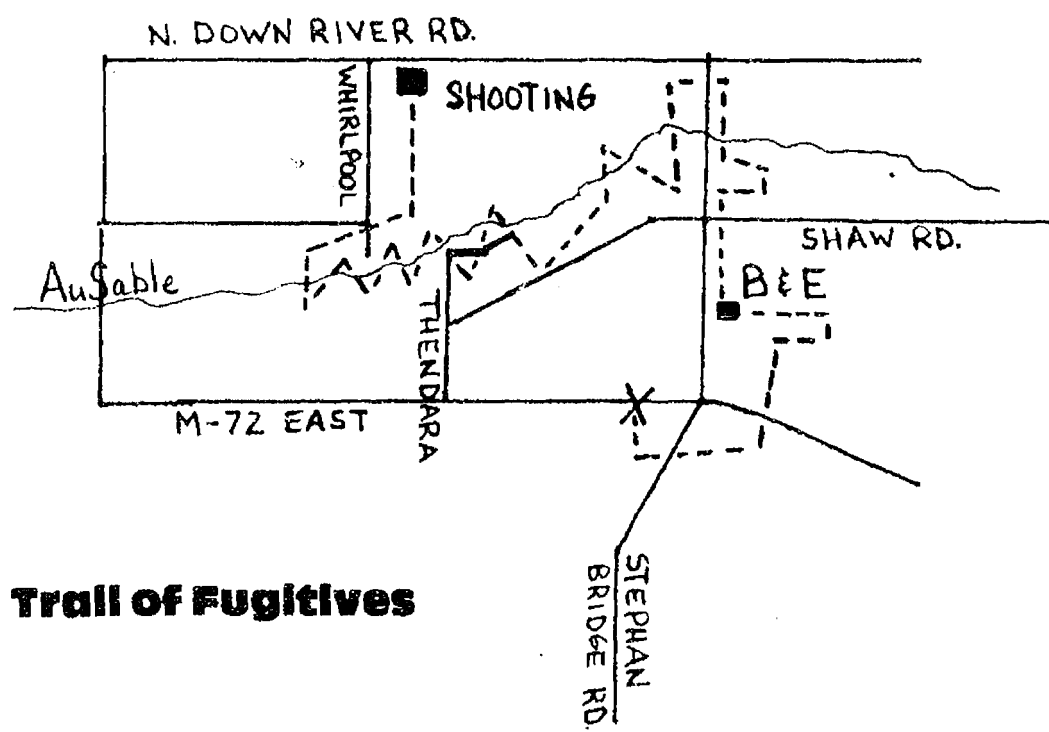

The two suspects then reportedly tried to start their vehicle, a stolen car from West Branch, and it stalled. They were attempting to start Huck's car when police sirens scared them into the woods, according to Huck.

More than 35 law enforcement officers from the Crawford County Sheriff Dept., Grayling City Police, Michigan State Police, and DNR were called in along with DNR search planes and U.S.

Coast Guard helicopter.

Linda Sprague with her tracking dog Lex and sheriff deputies David Lovely and Jeff Anthony followed the suspects' trail to the river. The dog managed to pick up the trail again and again as the suspects crossed the river several times heading downstream and later broke into a trailer off of Stephan Bridge Rd. where police believed they changed clothes. Shortly after dark, sheriff deputy Jo Ellen Bonington, investigating a reported sighting of the suspects, spotted the pair along with a local youth along M-72 East near the intersection of Stephan Bridge Rd. She got two of the youths up against the patrol car but one of the suspects fled into the woods about a 100 yards where a tracking dog from Emmet County found him.

Sheriff Joe White said there was excellent cooperation among the area departments that led to the apprehension of the suspects.

Crawford Receives $56,000 Rental Rehabilitation Grant

By Jon Thompson

Crawford County will receive a $56,000 grant for rental rehabilitation, Senator Connie Binsfeld announced last week.

With the grant money, the Crawford County Housing Rehabilitation and Community Development Office will loan up to $50,000 a unit to improve substandard rental units in the county.

The loans are paid back $30 a month with no interest charged. The loans can only be used to pay up to 60 percent of a project with the landlord providing matching funds.

The grant money will become available July 1 and persons interested in the programs should visit the county housing rehabilitation office in the county courthouse.

The grant comes from the Michigan Dept. of Commerce 1984 Small Cities housing program.

The unit to be rehabilitated must be owned by a private, for-profit owner and each unit must require a minimum expenditure of $1000 to correct substandard conditions.

The rehabilitation funds can't be used for new construction or completion of the initial construction of a structure. The structure to be renovated or converted to rental units must be at least five years old.

2,000 Civilian Jobs Attached to Infantry

By Jon Thompson

Basing a new light infantry division at Camp Grayling could add 2,000 civilian jobs to the area — more than half the number of jobs currently held in Crawford County.

Colonel Ivan Gwilt, Camp Grayling Commander, said if Grayling is chosen as the site for the 10,000-man new division, the camp and airport would require about $1 million in new construction.

Gwilt also said the infantry would be based year-round here and would bring an estimated 30,000 people to Grayling. Research indicates about 2.5 persons on an average accompany each military person.

The light infantry division topic came up at a luncheon Wednesday with four members of the DNR commission at the Grayling Holiday Inn. Dr. Paul Mesack asked the commission members what input the commission members will have on any decision to base the new division here because a lot of range areas used by the military are leased from the DNR.

The four commissioners said it was the first time they had heard anything about a light infantry division possibly being stationed at Camp Grayling.

Colonel Gwilt said Camp Grayling now encompasses about 164,000 acres and the new infantry division would require about 80,000 acres to train. He said he didn't think the division would have much impact on conservation efforts in the area. Environmental impact statements for the range areas have already been filed and the new division possibly training here had been discussed with DNR officials in Lansing, Gwilt added.

He said the current guard training here would be able to continue if the infantry was based here.

Gwilt said he's talked with school, hospital, bank, city, county, and business leaders, and in his opinion, the general reaction may be about 97 percent of the people here will probably agree a new infantry division based here would be a good thing for the area.

There will be a few people who oppose it, he said. It will be quite a shock for some of the people who came here to live because there are only 1700 people in the city and 9500 people in the county, he said. And he guessed some of the same people he hears from now who come up for weekends will also probably not like it.

Gwilt said if the decision is made to base the infantry here, Army planners will decide where to build the new facilities needed for the division.

It's possible a decision on where the division will be based will be made by August. Grayling is one of seven sites being considered and the army would like to begin work on a new site by October 1st.

Few Object to Mason Tract Timber-Cutting Plan, But DNR Priorities Questioned

By Jon Thompson

A DNR 10-year plan to cut 27 percent of the timber on the Mason Tract received little opposition at a public hearing held May 25 at the MacMullen Conference Center near Higgins Lake, but questions were asked about DNR priorities in dealing with the recreational area along the AuSable South Branch.

The timber management plan calls for clearcutting mostly aspen and jack pine in blocks predominately 10 acres or less.

"Very little, if any, of the cuttings will be visible from the river," said Jim McMillan, DNR forester, who helped develop the plan.

Cutting will also be kept back 200 feet from heavily used trails in the Mason Tract.

The main objectives for the cuttings will be to improve habitat for wildlife and maintain existing aspen for wildlife, convert some areas to longer-life species such as red or white pine, and improve the age-class distribution of the forest, McMillan said. Currently 65 percent of the trees in the tract are 60 years or older. A variety of species at different ages is better suited for wildlife.

DNR district wildlife biologist Tom Havard said its important to improve habitat for deer in the area because the South Branch is a winter deer yard for several hundred deer from a 70-100 mile radius.

"The available browse there is not very abundant," said Havard. "The deer are over-utilizing everything that's there — from sweet fern to white pine and balsam fir — anything they can reach they're over-utilizing."

"In the recent past we've experienced fairly heavy winter deer losses in that area," he said. "That's not uncharacteristic of the rest of the deer yards around, but it's probably a little worse in there (the Mason Tract) because no management has been done in such a long time."

Havard said grouse, woodcock, rabbits, and other wildlife would benefit from the cutting.

DNR fish biologist Gary Schnicki indicated he was in total support of the approach taken by the forestry and wildlife divisions and said the management plan certainly did not treat the Mason Tract like just another piece of state land.

Schnicki also said the idea some people have of just leaving the Mason Tract alone is not a realistic one.

"We're dealing with mostly very old trees in there," he said. "Whether we do anything or not in the Mason Tract, the way that thing looks in the next 20 years is going to change one heck of a lot. If we just let it all die and fall down, especially that jack pine and popple, it's going to look terrible. I look at the alternatives they're posing as the only really smart way to go."

Bernie Fowler, of Grayling, said there is a lot of misunderstanding about what George Mason intended when he left the land.

John MacGregor, DNR region II director, said George Mason's gift to the state carried three main stipulations: the land remains a game preserve, it can not be sold, and the state had to accept the gift within two years.

Marion Wright, of Grayling, said he doesn't object to the timber plans, but asked if timber cutting should be the DNR's first priority in managing the Mason Tract. Wright also read a letter from George Griffin questioning DNR priorities.

Griffin's letter stated the donor emphasized the land should be left in a wilderness state and there should be only one lunch-stop landing for canoes. Yet canoeists now camp up and down the river and several roads are open into the Mason Tract. Griffin said if the major issues concerning the area had been prioritized 27 years ago when the DNR took over management or even in 1979 when the long-range management plan was issued, the problems would be solved by now.

Griffin cited the long-range plan's definition of the key value of the area as river recreation with emphasis on blue-ribbon trout fishing. Secondary uses include canoeing, hiking, hunting, and cross-country skiing. From a budget of more than $1 million in the long-range plan, Griffin said it appears as if picnicking and canoeing will receive $125,000 for improvements while the stream will receive some of $20,000 for improvements.

"I do not oppose timber management but first things first," Griffin's letter said.

MacGregor said despite the budget problems, a lot has been accomplished at the Mason Tract. He said there are less roads open now than in 1969 and the Mason Tract has grown from the original 1500 acres to more than 3200 today with another land exchange proposal of 500 acres in the works.

John Foley, who lives next to the Mason Tract, said he agreed that wildlife is having problems in the aging forest there and overmature trees should be taken out before the wind blows them over. He asked for five stipulations to the cutting plan — a 200-foot buffer on clearcutting next to residential properties, a 200-foot buffer along Willow Road on the south end of the tract, individual large pine and other trees left uncut when stands of aspen and jack pine are to be harvested, logging trails blocked afterwards, and cutting banned during hunting season.

The DNR staff at the meeting agreed to the stipulations and said they would be choosing cutting contractors rather than auctioning off contracts in order to have more control over who does the cutting in the Mason Tract.

From Our Corner...

The petunias are planted and once again Grayling will be beautified along I-75 Business Loop and Michigan Avenue with the help of mother nature for warmer weather...it seems we are getting just enough rain to help everything green-up, but for June it could be a bit warmer...the hanging flower baskets as one comes into town from the south down by the Grayling Mall really look nice...the Beautification Committee and all those who worked on this project are to be complimented, as well as those who donated money toward the purchase of the flowers...the flowers just seem to add something extra to the appearance of Grayling...

We received a phone call from Peg Milnes last week wondering where we got the information for the story in the Avalanche of a couple weeks ago about there not being any Danes living here...she said she knew a bunch of Danes, and at one time there were French and Danes that made up about 80 percent of the population...I told her I also questioned the story when Jon Thompson put it together from a census bureau report that I was Dane and figured there were quite a few like me still living in Grayling...but then, we have known other times when Washington has made mistakes so we just shrugged it off...besides there wasn't a phone number on the report where I could call and complain...

A couple weeks ago when we mentioned how we like to watch the Orioles feed on oranges, we mentioned that we may sound nuts but dang it all it was fun...we found out there are more like us...John Sojka came in the office one day and said while you're watching the Orioles I have been taking pictures of them...he had the pictures to prove it...Dane tried to get pictures while he was here but had no luck, they really are a skittish bird...we haven't had any around our back yard for over a week now, so assume they have taken off...

We don't know if it is disrespect or stupidity with the younger generation riding their bicycles around town...they neither obey the stop signs, nor look out for automobiles, in fact they seem to care less for anyone but themselves...if it will do any good, which I doubt, the Avalanche is going to print the rules and regulations for bicycle riding...we're beginning to think that with their disregard for the laws governing driving of cars that possibly they should have to pass a test and get a license just as those who drive motorcycles...that way a number could be turned in when some smart aleck performs his trade...the problem is, is that someone is going to be hurt, and hurt real bad...

We had a nice experience last Friday when we were invited to take a ride in a UH-60 helicopter nicknamed the "Blackhawk" that is assigned to the Kentucky Army National Guard who left this past weekend after spending two weeks in field training at Camp Grayling...Major Keith Kappes Public Affairs Officer invited us for the ride and we were joined by Walt Nowak of the Chamber, Betty Bennett and Bob Greenwood from WQON along with five Kentucky Guard personnel...we have flown in smaller helicopters, but this was the first time in one this large...the chopper has a lift capacity of about 10,000 pounds...

We've toiled long enough trying to fill this turkey for this week, so we will bid T.J., Stefany and Amber goodnight, and to all of our readers have a nice weekend...the Fourth of July is right around the corner...plan on being in Grayling Saturday, July 7th for the fireworks, parade and fun...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

MARKS OF A HYPOCRITE

Matthew 23:34-36

The final mark of a spiritual hypocrite is his hatred for God and His servants. We saw last week how they try to cover their hatred in each generation by showing their love for the Christian martyrs of the past. We saw how they crucified God in flesh at the same time they were building "the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous." Jesus reminded His own crucifiers how they would treat His servants in the future after His own crucifixion. "Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city: That upon you may come all the righteous blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation." Matthew 23:34-36.

All the disciples of Christ were martyred except John. They boiled him in oil, but he didn't die. Foxes's Book of Martyrs gives the bloody history of the church of Christ down through the centuries. Most religious persecution has been led by false religious leadership. The wrath of God is being stored up against those who have slain God's servants. Jesus reminded the devil's preachers in His day that all the blood of the saints of the Old Testament would be remembered in judgment. From Abel, the first martyr to Zachariah, the last martyr of the Old Testament. Certainly the religious leadership of Israel paid a price for their sin.

Jesus said one of the signs of the last days would be an increase of false prophets. "And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many." Matthew 24:11. This was given in answer to His disciple's question "...Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?" Matthew 24:3b. One of the important signs is false Christs, false prophets, and false religions, leading up to the Anti-christ in person and the apostate one world church of Revelation 17.

The true prophets of God can be discerned by their position on the Word of God. A prophet proclaims the message of God. Any preacher who does not believe the entire Bible is his final authority is a false authority. He may believe 5% or 50% or 99% and deceive many people, but he must believe and be willing to defend and proclaim 100% of the complete Bible to be a true prophet of God. One sure sign he does not believe 100% of the Bible is his hatred for those of us who do. He cannot long hide it. It is the same hatred which crucified our Lord Jesus Christ, the living Word. (adv.)

Our Spas are Easy to Set Up.
Just take it home, plug it into a standard electrical outlet, connect the ground wire, and fill it with a garden hose.

They can be put Anywhere.
Aqua Springs spas are at home outside or inside. They're perfect for deck or patio. Special heavy-duty construction makes them weather-proof, fade-proof, and shock-proof. They're built to withstand sun, rain, freezing temperatures, and years of heavy use.

They can be Enjoyed Year Round.
Unlike a swimming pool they're far less expensive, easier to maintain, more energy efficient, and offer all the soothing benefits of whirlpool bathing.

They're Built to Last.
Customers simply can't buy a better spa than ours. Aqua Springs spa shells are made from tough, impact-resistant polymers to give many years of trouble-free operation and low maintenance cost. One-piece construction means there are no seams to split, no joints to break.

They Cost Very Little To Run.
Even in the coldest weather, the cost to run an Aqua Springs spa could be less than $12 a month, depending on the price of electricity in your area. The reason for all this energy efficiency is simple - we fill the interior of every spa we make with insulating foam to provide solid construction and plenty of insulation.

A Complete Insulated Cover is Included with All Models.

First Annual Drunk Driving Audit Released

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Dir., MPA

Michigan's first drunk driving audit, authorized under the 1982 drunk driving statutes showed a total of 561 persons killed in 509 alcohol-related accidents during the 1983 reporting period.

The audit, compiled and released recently by the State Police, covered the March 30-December 31 period.

The total number of fatal accidents in the period, 949, involved the deaths of 1,041 people, and more than half those killed died in alcohol-related accidents.

On a country basis, the number of alcohol-related deaths were 16 for 10,000 people.

According to the audit, out of 72,155 personal injury accidents in the state, with 107,930 persons injured during that time, 13,875 accidents involved the use of alcohol, with 21,900 people injured. For the 83 counties, the total alcohol-related accidents averaged 15 for every 10,000 people.

The audit also showed that 6,407 persons had their driver's license suspended for refusing to take alcohol blood level tests, 51,165 persons were arrested under the law and 6,914 persons were convicted of operating while under the influence of liquor and 10,533 were convicted of driving while impaired.

Of those convicted of operating under the influence, 1,921 were sentenced to jail, 3704 had their licenses revoked or suspended, while 3,280 were given restricted licenses.

Of those convicted of driving while impaired, 3,467 had suspended or revoked licenses and 7,070 had restricted licenses.

In a related matter, a state house committee considered a measure that would outlaw sobriety traffic checklanes and agreed to hold off consideration of HB 5353 until autumn, under an agreement that the proposed checklane program will be presented to the panel for review and that checklanes will not be established by the state police before then.

Judiciary Committee Chairman Perry Bullard (D-Ann Arbor) said the committee will not act on the bill until after having a chance to review a proposed checklanes program.

Several committee members, while hesitant about checklanes, said they might support a test program with checklanes.

Use of checklanes, which are designed to cut down on the incidence of drunk driving by stopping cars and observing the driver for signs of intoxication, was recommended by the state's Task Force on Drunk Driving.

State Police Director Gerald Hough has said the state police has the authority to implement checklanes, but would not until conferring with Governor James Blanchard.

Ministers Blast G.A. Proposal

Calling it "undeniably cruel, unconsonable, dirty politics," a group of ministers are protesting the Senate's action to cut off general assistance benefits to employable recipients for six months in 1985.

The group also said they would conduct a weeklong prayer vigil at the Capitol in hopes of changing the proposal before it goes to the governor.

The Rev. Edsel Ammons, bishop of the Michigan Area United Methodist Church, said the Legislature's "present mood is unmindful or indifferent of the needs of the poor," who already subsist on the "meagerest" of benefits.

Instead of cutting G.A. recipients, the Legislature should be granting increases in benefits and developing more "humane and creative" programs to find employable welfare recipients jobs, he said.

The proposal would affect some 118,000 G.A. recipients between the ages of 16 and 54 who would be cut off benefits from April to October, 1985.

"I believe in United Way. Americans have traditionally helped their neighbors. As our population has increased and our society's needs have become more complex, neighborhood boundaries have expanded and it has become more difficult to help. United Way offers a means to continue providing help today. One out of every three citizens in Crawford Co. benefits from the services of UW."

The UW fundraising campaign does not begin until Fall, but is necessary to begin to lay the groundwork now. I personally feel it is important for everyone to understand just how their donation will be spent in the community, who is responsible for the allocation of funds, and what agencies will be funded. Therefore, we will be having a series of articles in the Avalanche covering the purposes and activities of all the local funded agencies. We will also have a series of articles to explain how UW operates. We are looking forward to a successful campaign again this year. Our local human service agencies are counting on all of us."

Crawford Co. United Way would like to remind all applying agencies that they are responsible for submitting a letter to the United Way board, in reference to how they will help in our 1984 campaign.

Dear Whitey,
This year as in most years we have many people who consider themselves Booster Club members, but forget to send in their annual dues.

Anyone who has an interest in the young people, or general quality of life for all in Crawford County, should belong to the Grayling Youth Booster Club. Since 1971 the Booster Club has raised and spent $178,186 to provide benefits for the young people in this area. These benefits have included athletic uniforms, scoreboards, special olympics, college scholarships, safety car seats for kids, 4th of July fireworks, and other purchases and programs which have enriched the opportunities for our youth/who are our future.

To join the Booster Club costs $5. for the first year and $3. per year afterwards to renew, although if you pay in advance you can renew for the next 5 years for $10. So a check for $5. gets you in for 1 year, or a check for $15. gets you in for the next 6 years (until 1990).

Please join your neighbors and friends who are already Booster Club members by mailing your checks to:

Thank You,

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

Preparations for the third "Old-time Days" festival (to be held June 23rd and 24th) are reaching the nitty-gritty stage. The various participants from the blacksmith to the players of the old-time music and the woodcarvers are set to come. There will be games for the kids and folk toys for the grandparents. The crosscut saws are sharp and ready for you to cut a souvenir lumberjack dollar. The steam tractor is ready to be fired. New water tanks were built and put back to supply extra water for the boiler; the flues were cleaned and firewood cut. It is surprising how much work goes into preparing for two days: phone calls to make, special tools or equipment to locate, and arranging for vehicle parking.

Along with preparations for the "Old-time Days", the summer crew is arriving and being orientated. The last of the spring projects is being completed while at the same time a growing list of projects is accumulating as public use places strain on facilities or ways to improve existing facilities are found. While people are camping or visiting the Tall Timber, trees are being planted for tomorrow's generations of visitors. Much of what goes on in a park is not always visible but for your enjoyment or safety, it is a continuing activity.

Receives Degree

Jill Behlke, former resident of Grayling has received her Associates Degree in Dental Assisting from Ferris State College. Jill graduated with a 4.0. She plans to enroll in the Dental Hygiene Program in the fall at Oakland University.

Eye Doctor Joins Staff

William R. Eppler, M.D., ophthalmologist, has joined the staff of Grayling Mercy Hospital. Dr. Eppler will be specializing in ophthalmological medicine and surgeries at the hospital. He has opened an office at the Milltown Clinic on North Down River Road and also on the staff at Otsego Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Eppler is trained to treat eye diseases and perform eye surgeries. He will be doing outpatient surgeries at Mercy Hospital. The hospital has equipped the surgery department to accommodate Dr. Eppler and his patients.

Dr. Eppler has been a practicing ophthalmologist for 19 years. He received his medical degree from Wayne State University and served his residency at the Kresge Eye Institute, and Detroit Receiving Hospital. He is certified by the American Board of Ophthalmology.

The addition of Dr. Eppler to the Mercy Hospital staff adds a very valuable service to the hospital. Jim Packard, vice president of the hospital said, "having an ophthalmologist on staff helps us in our goal of providing a broad range of services to the community."

With Dr. Eppler, Mercy Hospital now has 39 physicians on staff. Three additional physicians will join in July. The other doctors are Pary Reza, M.D., Lloyd Whooper, M.D., and Terry Howell, M.D. Doctors Reza and Whooper will be working out of the Houghton Lake Clinic, and Dr. Howell will be joining William George, M.D., in his practice in the Family Practice Clinic on North Down River Road, Grayling.

School Closing Notes

Mrs. Knibbs' Second Grade Rachel Bennett was the first Second Grader to receive an answer from the annual 2nd grade Balloon Launch. Rachel's balloon was found by Dave Pederson of Indian River, Ontario, which is about 60 miles east of Toronto. This is the first time and wind currents have taken the balloons in this direction.

The last day of school the students took part in their first spelling bee. Chris DiPonio was the winner and received a medal on which was engraved "Room 7 Spelling Champ". The medal was hung from a red, white and blue ribbon.

Our class would like to thank Mr. Earl Wood for drawing the winning ticket for our quilt on Memorial Day. The winner was Ms. Jane Croze. We made $535 on the sale of tickets, and our check has been sent to the Statue of Liberty Fund. Our name will be entered in the Register of School Contributions and will be displayed in the museum of the statue.

Outdoor Writers Hosted

by Don Geiss

Nationally known outdoor writers and local trout anglers socialized and fished together last week on the AuSable and Manistee Rivers.

The writers, mostly from southern states, had been invited to try their hand at trout fishing by Juhl Associates, a public relations firm located in Elkhart, Indiana.

Juhl account executive Louie Stout contacted the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce during the winter and explained that the Outdoor Writers Association of America was meeting in early June at Traverse City. He told chamber officials that his company would like to sponsor a trout fishing trip for southern states writers.

Stout suggested that a wild game dinner on one evening followed by a fishing experience the following day.

Chamber executive Walt Nowak and secretary Joyce Kolka called upon Skip and Gail Madsen of Skip's Sport Shop to enlist the services of guides. Carroll and Sally Wert were asked to provide a wild game supper. They produced their usual fine gourmet dinner and were roundly applauded by the writers after the meal.

The site for the pre-fishing trip activities and overnight camping was the River Park Campground on M-93 north near Hartwick Pines State Forest hosted by Beverly Stephan.

The Madsens came up with a team of guides including Bill Rutter, Jim Abney, Orlin Lucksted, Skip Madsen and Don Geiss. While not officially donning waders to head out on the stream, Gail Madsen played a leading role as she talked with the visitors about trout and managed an impromptu fish fry for lunch during the fishing trip.

The major portion of the fishing was done on the Manistee River in the vicinity of King Trout Ranch. Dan Cateau, owner of the ranch, located the fishermen at various strategic spots along the river and spotted convenient vehicles for them to use in returning to the ranch.

Writers on the fishing trip included Wade Bourne of Clarksville, Tennessee, a syndicated newspaper columnist who has several radio shows and writes for a number of magazines. Also fishing were Steve Netherby of San Clemente, California, who is camping editor for Field and Stream, Jim Zumbo of Vernal, Utah, who is Editor-at-large for Outdoor Life, and John Phillips, of Fairfield, Alabama, a full-time freelancer. Rounding out the group was Dennis Guerink of Allendale, Michigan, who writes for Michigan Fisherman and Field and Stream.

Dear Whitey,

First of all I would like to say thank you for your support of the Middle School Bond issue. As a concerned parent and taxpayer I appreciate the public stand that you as well as others have taken in support of a responsible solution to school building needs.

The rest of my comments I would like to address to all parents as well as taxpayers in this school district: My term of office on the Board of Education will soon be over. Eight years ago I became involved because I felt strongly that a good school system is essential for a good community and the future success of our children. My thoughts have not changed.

Over that eight years some very hard decisions have had to be made. Class sizes were increased, libraries and schools closed, custodial, secretarial and teaching staff laid off, maintenance delayed again and again, school bus purchases delayed and bus routes crowded. This list could go on but the point is very hard decisions have to be made when there is not enough money to meet all the needs. The Board of Education had done its best to protect "our" investments and at the same time to educate "our" children.

It is about time that this community start to accept the responsibility for "their" schools and "their" children. You, the taxpayers, have been responsible for maintenance being delayed, crowded school buses, large classroom sizes, and etc. You have repeatedly turned down requests for increased millages that would have resolved these problems. You have recently turned down your new Middle School.

These are your schools and your children and not just the responsibility of seven school board members. If there is blame to be put on anyone look only to yourself.

I challenge you to get involved and resolve this crisis. Within two years elementary school children will no longer have enough classroom space. At any time in the future the Middle School may have to be closed. Children will become victims and their futures will be threatened. Are we going to have to wait for the building to fall apart and children be forced to half day sessions or relocatable before a new bond issue is approved?

Crawford County could be a "great" community. A community where people care about each other and expend energy building and working together instead of name calling and tearing down. The choice and the future of our children and our community is in your hands.

Your True Friend
and Neighbor,
Kathy Burkley

Case No. U-7943

NOTICE REQUIRING FILING OF PLAN FOR DEVELOPMENT AND IMPLEMENTATION OF HEATING ASSISTANCE PROGRAM FOR TEMPORARY AND LONG-TERM UNEMPLOYED WORKERS AND OPPORTUNITY FOR PUBLIC COMMENTS

As a result of the enactment of the Energy Assurance Program (Acts 26, 34, 35, 36, 37 and 49 of 1984) (EAP), the Michigan Public Service Commission is required to develop assistance programs for temporarily and long-term unemployed workers. The EAP was enacted because the Commission, together with representatives of various Michigan utilities and other interested state agencies and parties, worked for over a year toward establishing a program designed to meet the heating needs of low-income customers while at the same time attempting to moderate utility company bad debt through various means.

Among other legislative actions in the EAP are provisions for assistance with heating bills for low-income customers, a targeted weatherization program, home heating tax credits and revised energy theft legislation.

In Section 16 of 1984 PA 34 the Legislature has directed the Commission to develop heating assistance programs for temporarily and long-term unemployed workers in the state. Such programs shall include all of the following:

- An outreach program designed to advise newly unemployed workers of assistance available through provider utilities. The outreach program shall provide information material to newly unemployed workers through the Michigan Employment Securities Commission.
- Cyclical budget payment plan options for unemployed workers.
- Specialized home energy analysis programs designed to advise newly unemployed workers of low-cost and no-cost weatherization and energy conservation measures.
- Deferred payment options for long-term unemployed workers who are not recipients of general assistance or aid to families with dependent children, which shall not include an option in which the deferred amount becomes an obligation of the state if the individual becomes an assisted household.

The programs to be developed by the Commission under Section 16 of 1984 PA 34 shall be implemented prior to the next heating season by Michigan Consolidated Gas Company and two other major utilities and will remain in effect until September 30, 1988. Other regulated utilities will be required to implement similar programs at a later date. The recently enacted statute and the requirements thereunder are responsive to the particular plight of customers who are having difficulty paying their heating bills due to a loss of significant portion of household income as a result of unemployment.

Pursuant to the legislative directive established under Section 16 of 1984 PA 34, the Commission has found that it is appropriate and necessary to initially require Michigan Consolidated Gas Company to submit, for Commission consideration, its proposal for specific development and implementation of a plan which is consistent with the criteria and objectives in the statute.

Jurisdiction is pursuant to 1909 PA 106, as amended, MCLA 460.551 et seq.; 1909 PA 300, as amended, MCLA 462.2 et seq.; 1919 PA 419, as amended, MCLA 460.51 et seq.; 1939 PA 3, as amended, MCLA 460.1 et seq.; 1969 PA 306, as amended, MCLA 24.201 et seq.; and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 1979 Administrative Code, R 460.11 et seq.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that:

A. Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, shall submit to the Commission, no later than June 20, 1984, a plan for development of a program to meet the requirements as set forth in Section 16 of 1984 PA 34, together with the necessary details and specific means of implementing such programs. Such plan shall include an approved specialized home energy analysis.

B. Costs associated with the development and administration of the approved plan shall be considered in the Company's next general gas rate case or in an independent proceeding. Costs associated with providing the specialized home energy analysis shall be considered in the Company's Michigan Residential Conservation Services Program reconciliation proceeding.

C. Public comments on Michigan Consolidated's plan are invited to be submitted to the Commission on or before July 2, 1984. Upon request to Mr. Dennis O'Connell, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, 500 Griswold Street, 10th Floor, Detroit, Michigan 48226, a copy of the Company's plan filed with the Commission shall be provided to interested parties for comment.

D. Following submission of the Company's plan, receipt of comments thereon, and replies thereto, the Commission Staff shall approve or modify a plan for each utility and monitor the implementation thereof pursuant to Section 16 of 1984 PA 34.

E. Michigan Consolidated Gas Company shall begin offering specialized home energy analyses by July 16, 1984.

American Legion Auxiliary News

by Laurie Jensen, P.R. Director

Friday night I was privileged to attend the installation of officers down at the post. Last week I told you who our officers are but what I didn't tell you was that our President, Sharon Rubey, asked her mother to be the installing officer. It brought tears to this writers eyes to have seen such a touching sight as a mother installing her daughter to do duties of such importance. I wish that you Auxiliary members could have shared this evening with us. You missed a special night.

Past State Commander, George Johnson of Falmouth, MI, was the installing officer for the men of our Post. The following men were installed Friday: Tom Milner, Commander; Marty Kitchen, 1st Vice Commander; Carl Johnson, 2nd Vice Commander; Yettev Sketnicki, Adjutant; Art Thayer, Finance Officer; Lee Hirvela, Chaplain; Larry Haske, Sgt. at Arms and Historian.

We did not have the 8 & 40 install with us but we did have the 40 & 8's install with us. Following the installation a celebration dance was held. Fred Hinkle provided the music and he did an excellent job as always.

Sharon Rubey reports that she had a wonderful but tiring time down at girls state. The girls that were sent from our area were really having a great time. Hopefully in our September meeting we will be having the girls give us their reports on girls state.

For those of you that missed it, Thursday the 14th which was Flag Day, a flag burning ceremony was held down at the post.

I hear that someone down at the Legion has a new nickname. It's Betsy Ross!!!

Until next time...Have a Nice Day!!!

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to: Leo Hirvela, Art Thayer, Tom Milner; Fire Dept. ## Letters of Interest

To Col. Gwill, Grant S. Hayter, who lives on Glerke Road in Grayling (348-9482), was fishing in the AuSable River on Friday afternoon when he found a wallet belonging to MAJ Robert Brandenburg of Louisville, Ky., a member of the Kentucky Army National Guard who was encamped at Camp Grayling for annual training. MAJ Brandenburg lost his wallet eight days earlier when his canoe overturned.

Mr. Hayter made three or four phone calls to Camp Grayling but could not locate MAJ Brandenburg because the Kentuckians were preparing to depart early Saturday. At that point, Mr. Hayter drove out to the post and found MAJ Brandenburg and returned the wallet which contained $600!

MAJ Brandenburg insisted that Mr. Hayter accept a $100 reward for returning the wallet intact with the cash, credit cards, etc. He also took Mr. Hayter out to dinner.

MAJ Brandenburg said of his returned wallet:

"What a great surprise on the day before we go home. Mr. Hayter restored my faith in people. I would not have believed that something like this could happen in these times. Mr. Hayter is an honest man and I'm proud to know him."

Chamber Chatter

By Joyce Kolka

In the life of a Chamber of Commerce, a new beginning comes forth with a fiscal year. As of June 1, 1984, new officers assume the helm and steer the destiny of this organization. The emphasis of this effort was clearly recognized at the Chamber's Annual Banquet held on Thursday evening at the Holiday Inn. The Changing of the Guard, so to speak, took place when outgoing President Joe Wakeley transferred the gavel of office to incoming President Kathy Ashton.

In remarks made at the Banquet, Joe Wakeley reviewed the activities of his regime and paid special tribute to Past President and outgoing Board Member Ernie Dawson of Flowers by Josie. Ernie has devoted much of his time as a volunteer, tireless worker, whose talents helped to provide leadership and accomplishment to the Chamber. And he isn't done yet. His artistic acumen will soon be recognized in the decorations of the new Chamber building.

Also receiving an Appreciation Plaque was Randy Thompson, under whose leadership, the idea of the new building germinated to completion. It was Randy's total dedication to the project that enabled the other co-operating agencies, such as the Trades Classes of the High School to play an important role in the construction and completion of the building.

New President, Kathy Ashton, emphasized the organizational structure of the Chamber and the responsibilities assumed by the Committee system. Kathy also joined in the praise of those responsible for the construction of the Chamber building, citing those of great contributions.

The Committee Chairpersons announced the Members of their Committee and the objectives for the future. This was probably the feature of the evening, with the exception of the remarks of the Past President and current New President. It was an exchange of determination on the part of the Membership to make an all out effort for the economic success of the Community through the mechanism of the Chamber.

We moved to our new building on Friday with the help of Millikins, Inc. and their equipment and co-operative crew. It didn't take long, once the experts went to work. It will take some "getting used to" in this new location, however, everything is so new and clean. Once we get organized for an efficient flow of services to our visitors, then maybe things will settle down into routine, we hope. On the outside, we still need some landscaping, but that will also come with time. We are looking forward to being the showplace of the Community, giving the visitor an excellent first impression of Grayling and Crawford County.

The ribbon cutting ceremony for the new Chamber of Commerce Building will be held Thursday, June 21st, with an open house from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The public is invited.

Yes, that's me! I looked like that... dressed like that... and had fun!

That is the part the youngsters simply do not grasp. We weren't odd characters. We were living life to the hilt. And after awhile we were not so young—but we still lived to the hilt as life unfolded before us.

Everything in life didn't change like the bathing suit. Truths we learned, we passed on to our children and they are teaching them to theirs. Principles we believed in, hopes we cherished—they still motivate Christian men and women all over the world. They are preached every Sabbath, practiced every day.

We had something. It is vital that you gain it, too. Now it's your turn to serve!

Strolling Around Town

Our bouquet this week goes to Richard Brady in North Park Sub. for his "velvet" lawn. The neighbors think it is beautiful and wish he'd share his secret. I know the secret - it's the magic touch inherited from his Irish father, John Brady. I can't help writing a little Grayling history here. John Brady was a big, quiet man, who was a railroad section foreman days and a gardener mornings and evenings. The big spring event in the neighborhood arrived when the bushels of leaves and manure (I don't remember from whose farm) were dumped on John's extra lot on Maple and Vine, and the Isenhauer horses plowed for spring planting. John defied all the odds about not being able to grow anything in Grayling sand; his vegetable garden was the biggest and best in town. Mike Brady is now at home and has a beautiful lawn in the empty lot and a small garden of very healthy looking corn.

George Hilton's garden next door is well-kept and doing fine. The Bob Ruddy's home has new plantings around the trees at the curb, and Leon D'Amours have flowers in their neat yard. The Les Hunters have flowers next to their house and a new lawn started. The Dewain Halls have a couple of planters in front as well as flowers along the house.

On the South Side, Helen Harwood has her house painted, thanks to some grandchildren, and she always keeps her yard beautiful. Mrs. Gildner has her usual impatiens in her planter but instead of petunias, there are lots of rosebushes waiting to blossom. Joe Bielskis also have flowers and a well-kept yard.

Grayling is looking better all the time—
